Contact

www.linkedin.com/in/holli-harris (LinkedIn)
www.HadleyStilwell.com (Company)

Top Skills

Healthcare Management
Sales Management
Cash Flow

Languages

Spanish (Limited Working)
Russian (Full Professional)
French (Professional Working)

Honors-Awards

Winner of Eileen Fisher Women Owned Business Grant Program

Holli Harris

CEO and Interim mission-based Leadership, Turnarounds, Startups, Long-term Corporate/Non-Profit Independent Board Director including Audit Committees Chair, Int'l Business in Multiple Industries, Entrepreneur
Greater Seattle Area

Summary

I am a chief juggler of high-stakes balls while moving a mission-based organization forward, in multiple industries and countries. I started a business along the way that is still going strong 15 years later, and I've served on multiple for-profit and non-profit boards. Leadership in behavioral health,10 years as Independent Director on the board of a NASDAQ-listed company with the first foreign healthcare network in China. Well-versed in collaborative decision-making on the risk oversight areas of cyber breach and financial controls, liquidity, SEC disclosures, executive compensation and succession, the M&A transaction committee process and the challenge of assymetric information. Introduced and obtained alignment on new risks to the board and management such as cyber security and social media for exposure discussion and risk policy implementation. Managed external auditor relationship and internal audit group as Audit Committee Chair, including establishment of SOX controls and testing framework. In both board and corporate roles, initiated strategic discussions around global trends, emerging technologies and cross-industry disruptive opportunities that retain and/or strengthen market position. Founder and CEO of 15-year old niche-market apparel company, backed by extensive corporate international business development and finance expertise in multiple industries, with an emerging market emphasis on Russia and China. Non-profit board seats include current Finance Committee member at The Northwest School, former trustee at Lake Washington Girls Middle School (including leading HOS transition), former Chair at PNW regional blood bank BloodworksNW during transformation of revenue model including commercialization of blood science IP, and 7 years at Ventures (providing access to microfinance and business skills training for disadvantaged entrepreneurs), including an expanded role as Chair during Executive Director transition.

Experience

The Comprehensive Training Center LLC

CEO/Co-founder

January 2024 - Present (1 year 7 months)

Seattle, Washington, United States

• Co-founded The Comprehensive Training Center with Francheska Perepletchikova PhD (the developer of the evidence-based behavioral health model DBT-C) with a mission to make accredited mental health clinical training and accompanying psychoeducation more accessible, affordable, efficient, culturally relevant and available in multiple languages.
• Executing on a long-term roadmap to leverage technology (including AI and VR) in offering immersive on-demand and hybrid clinical training that creates ongoing learning and skills practice opportunities.
• Establishing strategic collaborations with clinicians worldwide to foster further research that will lead to deeper and customized trainings.
• Creating and managing all non-clinical aspects of the business including FP&A, new product development, marketing strategy, technology assessments, course creation, and contractors.

HadleyStilwell

Founder/Owner

January 2009 - Present (16 years 7 months)

Greater Seattle Area

Launched HadleyStilwell in 2008, a niche-market apparel company meeting the clothing needs of mothers who breastfeed or pump outside the home in professional settings. Plan and run all aspects of the business including design, production, marketing, sales channels and financial analysis. Based on performance metrics and business model, which incorporates social responsibility in all aspects, HadleyStilwell was recognized and awarded a grant by the Eileen Fisher Women In Business nationwide competition in 2010. Financial performance has earned it a credit line for seasonal capital expenditure requirements.

Behavioral Health eLearning Collaboration

Independent Partner

April 2023 - December 2023 (9 months)

Greater Seattle Area

Partnered with mental health clinicians in their published areas of expertise to develop accredited multi-language asynchronous trainings that leverage Large Language Models, AI and Virtual Reality to create accessible and culturally-appropriate immersive training that improves knowledge retention and skills competency.

Behavioral Tech Institute
Chief Executive Officer
June 2018 - March 2023 (4 years 10 months)
Greater Seattle Area

Restructured global behavioral health training organization (DBT) while navigating significant legacy challenges.
•Financial: Stabilized cash flow by revising terms/collections, outsourced selected roles, renegotiated partnerships and started actionable financial reporting after rebuilding the COA. Changed staff/contractor ratio to decrease COGS. Resulted in tripling Net Income in first year and 500% growth in Working Capital, which provided a runway for pandemic resiliency and other unplanned expenses.
•Organizational: Initiated routine cross-functional communication and empowered employees to make decisions following new policies. Rebuilt and managed non-clinical team and introduced business line management. Walked staff through financial reporting for increased ownership and transparency. Resulted in high performing team with culture of accountability and respect.
•Operational: Reengineered and documented internal processes with staff for increased efficiency and future automation. At pandemic onset, pivoted from 100% in-person training events to remote live training thereby saving existing revenue on the books. Recruited nationwide for remote talent, started marketing arm for sales funnel prospecting. In HR role, began monthly pulse surveys with consistently high employee satisfaction ratings, designed annual benefits plan as retention tool.
•Systems implementations/project management: Automated payables, training event management, hiring and benefits. As part of larger rebranding effort, redesigned website optimized for SEO marketing, self-serve education and ease of purchase. Expanding LMS to automate enrollment and event metrics, vetting CRMs.
•Strategic: Collaborated with global affiliates and clinicians on new offerings that increase DBT program sustainability, thereby also increasing customer lifetime value. Led strategy sessions for new product development. Anticipated and managed ongoing legal, financial, technical and staffing challenges.

Bloodworks Northwest
Chair of the Board of Trustees

June 2015 - March 2019 (3 years 10 months)
Seattle, WA

Board Chair of BloodworksNW, the blood bank for the Pacific Northwest and Research Institute specializing in blood research with revenues of some $160M. (Compensation Committee Chair, Former Chair of Finance and Strategy Committee). Driving impact investing for commercializing blood science IP and other opportunities, cultural transformation, long-term strategic planning and accompanying metrics around shifting healthcare market, emerging technologies and consumer trends.

NextLevel - Building Enterprise Value
Extended Team Member at NextLevel
March 2015 - June 2018 (3 years 4 months)
Greater Seattle Area

NextLevel is a Pacific Northwest-based professional services firm with national resources, providing executive and board services on an interim, project and advisory basis.

I provided executive and board-level services on an advisory basis with a focus on working with boards on assessing cyber security risk, resiliency planning and creating concrete governance models that mitigate liability and ensure business continuity in the event of a breach and/or regulatory audit.

CHINDEX INTERNATIONAL, INC.
Independent Director and Audit Committee Chair
August 2004 - October 2014 (10 years 3 months)
China/Bethesda, MD

Appointed to Board of Directors of Chindex International (NASDAQ: CHDX) in 2004, the first foreign healthcare network in China. As Audit Committee Chair, managed external auditor relationship, quarterly reporting issues and internal audit team including establishment of Sarbanes-Oxley controls and testing framework. Served on Compensation Committee. Drove and participated in collaborative decision-making on the risk oversight areas of financial controls, aligning growth with liquidity, SEC disclosures, executive compensation, succession, the challenge of assymetric information and the SEC-governed Transaction Committee process. Introduced and obtained alignment on emerging risks to the board and management such as cyber security and social media for discussion and risk policy implementation. In a process that lasted 22 months, Chindex was taken private in a management buyout transaction in September 2014 by PE firm TPG in partnership with Hong Kong conglomerate Fosun. A go-shop period led to an increased offer price, there were no significant shareholder lawsuits and shareholders unanimously approved the deal.

Corbis Corp.
Business Analysis Manager
April 2004 - December 2007 (3 years 9 months)
Seattle, WA

•Led monthly business reviews and strategic analysis discussions with all business units and senior management.
•Worked with all groups to create scorecard metrics, resulting in highlighting of actionable issues.
•Worked directly with CFO on long range planning and annual budgeting process.
•Initiated and led data cleanup project, resulting in improved customer and product line analytics.
•Managed e-commerce strategy project, resulting in phased plan for website, metrics and peer group benchmarking.
•Sales incentive plan: Led cross-functional discussion around matching revenue goals to incentive plan, built model to quantify impact of numerous scenarios and explained new plan to international sales team.

Amgen
Financial Planning Analyst
2002 - 2003 (1 year)
Seattle, Washington, United States

Illumigen Biosciences Inc
Senior Licensing Manager
2001 - 2002 (1 year)
Seattle, Washington, United States

•Negotiated Research Agreements, intellectual property licenses, patents andcommercial lease.
•Worked with scientists in quantifying project risks.

Frog Design
Business Development Manager
2000 - 2001 (1 year)
San Francisco, California, United States

Dresdner Kleinwort Wasserstein

Senior Associate - Oil & Gas Team, Investment Banking
1998 - 2000 (2 years)
London Area, United Kingdom

Managed oilfield acquisition team in E. Europe/Latin America for corporateclients: Built valuation models, presented project economics, marketed assetsto bidders. (Assets valued at ~$300M.)

ARCO

Financial Analyst
1996 - 1998 (2 years)
Plano, Texas, United States

Multiple companies

Independent Business Owner & as Employee (see below) - Work Experience in Russia
1989 - 1994 (5 years)
Throughout the former Soviet Union

•HBH Trading (Independent Consultant): Engineered entry strategy into Russia for U.S. pipeline systems, water purification and pharmaceutical companies byinitiating discussions and overseeing joint venture agreements.
•Western Atlas International (Business Development Manager): Developed joint ventures in Russian market for U.S. oil exploration company and worked with Russian partners in selling joint services to Russian oil companies.
•Entered Azerbaijan market by engaging head of Azeri exploration company in collaborative opportunities, leading to a joint venture that expanded Western Atlas' market reach.
•Conceived and executed a medical aid airlift, including pharmaceutical donations, to W. Siberia. Coordinated between U.S. and Russian military,managed publicity in both countries and oversaw aid distribution. The goodwill generated resulted in the opening up of markets not previously available to Western companies.
•U.S. Department of State (Foreign Affairs Officer – U.S. Embassy, Moscow)

Education

University of Michigan - Stephen M. Ross School of Business

MBA, Corporate Strategy and Finance

UC Davis

BA, Int'l Relations and Russian Language