Mike Wior

CEO and Co-Founder, Allen Control Systems | Defense Robotics | Autonomous Systems

Austin, Texas, United States

Summary

CEO and co-founder of Allen Control Systems, we specialize in leveraging autonomous robotics in service to the defense industry. Previously I co-founded and was CEO for Omnivore, a restaurant POS transaction network which grew globally to 37,000+ locations and was acquired by Olo. I co-founded Nanos Health, maker of an orally dissolvable strip that pushes pharmaceutical ingredients directly into the bloodstream and is currently moving into trials with the FDA. I also served as the Chief Strategy and Technology Officer for Branded Venture Partners and was the CTO of Menupad, a table-side ordering platform for the restaurant industry, which was acquired by Mad Mobile.
