Contact

www.linkedin.com/in/ellen-lord-21458622 (LinkedIn)

Top Skills

General Management
Strategic Planning
Business Strategy

Ellen Lord

President & CEO at Textron Systems
Providence, Rhode Island, United States

Summary

A high-energy, business results focused leader with exceptional communication skills. Track record of motivating diverse teams around high priority objectives with a commitment to ethical business practices. High-tech industry experience ranging from automotive to aerospace & defense. A history of program capture including the ACAT 1 Scorpion program with the Army as well as leading the business that first obtained Army Fuze Board approval for an unattended networked munition system. Experience with unmanned aircraft system development, fielding and sustainment. A history of plastics engineering for safety critical automotive systems. History of mentoring and developing leaders.

Specialties: Unmanned aircraft systems, munitions and sensors for defense and security applications. Engineered plastics systems for automotive applicaitons. Continuous improvement for high tech industries involved with complex solutions featuring embedded software solutions in customed engineered hardware systems.

Experience

Textron Systems
15 years 7 months

President & CEO
October 2012 - Present (13 years 10 months)

SVP & GM Textron Defense Systems
January 2011 - October 2012 (1 year 10 months)
Wilmington, Massachusetts

Leading a weapons and sensor system business through significant growth through international foreign military sales.
Implementing continuous improvements in operations via metrics driven campaigns to increase productivity and capacity

Textron

SVP & GM AAI Corporation/Textron

April 2008 - January 2011 (2 years 10 months)

AAI/Textron

Increased sales and profits by 40% over 3 years as a tier 1 defense supplier focusing on unmanned aircraft systems, electronic warfare test and training systems and performance based logistics and contractor logistics support services.

Led a team that introduced multiple new products that significantly grew the company's portfolio.

Built strong relationships with government agencies, e.g. DCMA and DCAA, while developing compliant EVMS and Purchasing systems.

Acquired, developed and retained key talent to enable significant profitable growth.

Managed complex customer issues in a highly technical environment.

Provided award winning Performance Based Logistics for Shadow Unmanned Aircraft Systems.

Textron Systems

3 years 6 months

VP Integration Management

November 2005 - April 2008 (2 years 6 months)

Wilmington, Massachusetts

INtegrated AAI into Textron Systems while significantly growing revenues and profits.

Developed playbook for integration management for Textron Inc.

VP Integrated Battlefield Systems

November 2005 - November 2007 (2 years 1 month)

Wilmington, Massachusettsw

Led a business with US Army prime contracts including Future Combat Systems Unattended Ground Sensors, Scorpion unattended networked ground-based anti-vehicle munitions(ACAT 1), and Spider unattended networked ground-based anti-personnel munitions.

Captured ACAT 1 Scorpion program and managed a joint venture with ATK for Spider.

VP Strategic Planning

November 2004 - November 2005 (1 year 1 month)

Wilmington, Massachusetts

Responsible for mergers and acquisitions and organic growth strategies. Worked with outside advisors to identify acquisition candidates, including AAI. Prepared strategy presentations for Textron Corp senior management and board of directors.

Education

University of New Hampshire

Masters of Science, Chemistry · (1981 - 1983)

Connecticut College

BA, Chemistry & Biology · (1977 - 1981)