Summary

Sharing the genetic marker I-DF29 with American Founding Father, Alexander Hamilton, from a common ancestor 5 millennia ago, Pascal-Louis Joseph Davey is an American creative delivered by the great-grandson of Albert Einstein, Dr. Thomas Martin Einstein, in Santa Monica, CA in Los Angeles County on October 3rd, 1995 - the verdict day and same county of The People of the State of California v. Orenthal James Simpson. Davey grew up in the upland South in Evansville, IN - the hub of the tri-state area of Indiana, Illinois, and Kentucky. His mother resigned as a Staff Assistant from the J. Paul Getty Museum to raise him while his father, a British programmer, has worked as a consultant for British defence, AT&T, Motorola, Wells Fargo and several different major corporations. A graduate of Signature School (a school he despises, but recognizes...Jean, and thanks her for not cancelling his college acceptance after his second high school suspension), he attended Indiana University-Bloomington and received a Bachelor of Arts in Slavic (Russian) and Bachelor of Science in Informatics. He graduated with his Masters in Information Science from Indiana University's Department of Library and Information Science and has worked for companies such as Caterpillar and Bank of America. Davey is a dark, syncretic artist. He considers Christ "king of the prophets" and has received the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation in the Catholic Church. His great, great uncle's Father-in-law is Aleister Crowley, occultist and founding prophet of Thelema - the Western esoteric spiritual philosophy. He believes Rabelais' and Crowley's core tenet - "Do what thou wilt.." to be various iterations upon the Great Commandment - " 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets." (his own "Postmodern Sobornost") He is interested in the current development of the legacy of Christianity and Thelema, and a researcher of successors such as The Russian Orthodox Church, Modern Islam, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and The Church of Scientology. His great aunt, Reiko Johnson, also was the niece to two great uncles in Toei and Daiei - cinematographer Michio Midorikawa and director Tomu Uchida. The impact of Japanese culture can be felt in his familial lineage as well as his father's work for Toyota during his childhood.
