(TECH 50 H) Demystifying AI: Insights from the Stanford HAI (On-Camp, 2-month program)

Alex Styhar

Co-founder of Mindo AI · Vertical AI for regulated industries · Advisor to NASDAQ-listed companies · 2 prior exits · Forbes 30U30

San Francisco Bay Area

Summary

SF-based founder and investor with two prior exits. I build vertical AI for regulated industries: fintech, capital markets, and dual-use.What I am working on: Founder of an AI-native hedge fund. 3.98x realized DPI since 2022. Founder of Mindo AI, a performance-based user acquisition and analytics platform for fintechs. 230K total active users, $30M valuation, and $1M+ in net revenue within 8 months of launch. Participated in The Residency (backed by Sam Altman). The team brings backgrounds from Meta, Stanford, and Berkeley, with advisors and backers who are founders of NASDAQ-listed and a16z-backed companies. Partner at 100x Labs, a fintech incubator whose portfolio companies are backed by a16z, Electric Capital, and others. Advisor to the 0G Labs / ZeroStack ecosystem (NASDAQ: ZSTK) and select AI-native startups. Active in secondaries and OTC, sourcing late-stage allocations in category-leading AI and fintech companies. 2.6x realized DPI at the deal level.I work closely with investors and give them access to some of the most promising startups in fintech, capital markets, and AI.Forbes 30 Under 30. Ironman finisher and Ukrainian Book of Records holder. Private pilot.On LinkedIn I write operator notes on vertical AI (fintech, capital markets, dual-use): where it actually gets built inside regulated niches that need real domain expertise. I think it is one of the largest markets still wide open.Here to connect and jump on calls with strong technical teams: to collaborate, help each other, and team up as an advisor or investor, or co-found the right one.
