Lisa Seim

Principal at Strategic Exchanges- slowly moving the needle from TradFi to DeFi!
United States

Summary

-Traded and sold treasury products for various financial institutions in Austria, Germany and NYC in the mid 80's and 90's. I now steer financial institutions towards innovative solutions that will help them with their digital transformation process. Through roundtable discussions and intensive workshops my consortium members provide the latest technologies and processes to assist firms in making informed, strategic decisions.

Multilateral Accountability Associates Multilateralassociates.com

Defi/Blockchain specialist
October 2025 - Present (5 months)
Global

We partner with international organizations, governments, and development stakeholders to strengthen multilateral institutions through strategic reform, governance innovation, and accountability frameworks. In an era of geopolitical realignment and complex global challenges, we help institutions to evolve to live up to the expectations of their stakeholders and the realities of the 21st century.

Our mission is to catalyze meaningful reform and accountability so that these institutions can regain relevance and legitimacy, while becoming more effective in our multipolar world. Our advisory services help move that process forward.
