Creating Your Own Luck Towards Success

Tayo Adesanya

AI Chiplet Design Founder | Autonomy & Defense
Los Angeles, California, United States

Summary

I help companies build unique Ai semiconductor chips starting at the heart/brain which is the Processor.

I'm a proud Purdue Boilermaker and former student-athlete having earned All-American and Big Ten Championship awards. I've transferred that competitiveness spirit to the IoT and Semiconductor Industry as a proven Sales Engineer, Client Engagement Manage, Strategic Account Executive and now IP Sales Specialist.

Expertise Selling: ADAS/HPC/IoT CPU Processor IP, Custom Processor Design Tools, Digital/Mixed Signal ASICs, Wireless Connectivity ICs and modules, Micro-controllers, Micro-processors, Interface, Security, Power Management solutions, CMOS & CCD Image Sensors, Foundry Front End, Back End or Turnkey Services.

Developed projects in partnership with Amazon Web Services IoT, Google Cloud IoT, and Afero Cloud IoT Platforms.

More importantly, delivering value to our customers as a trusted adviser with an electrical engineering + MBA background. After selling ARC Processor, Security IP as well as Custom Chip Design Tools & Services that revolutionize the way chips are made as a turnkey service, I've now ventured out on my own. Welcome to Lola Vision Systems!!
