Experience

AccuShoot

Head of Market Expansion

March 2025 - Present (1 year 4 months)

Huntsville, Alabama, United States

As Head of Market Expansion at AccuShoot, I'm leading efforts to scale our footprint across domestic and international markets, forging strategic partnerships and identifying new growth opportunities in the defense, law enforcement, and civilian marksmanship sectors. AccuShoot's cutting-edge live-fire training technology combines real firearms, dynamic digital targets, and scenario-based simulations — redefining how individuals and organizations train for precision and readiness.

With a focus on market intelligence, go-to-market strategy, and customer engagement, I’m helping drive AccuShoot’s mission to revolutionize firearms training through innovation and accessibility.

Sancorp Consulting, LLC

Business Development and Proposal Manager

June 2024 - March 2025 (10 months)

Huntsville, Alabama, United States

Oversaw business development and proposal management efforts, focusing on federal contracting opportunities and strategic growth initiatives. Built relationships with government agencies, industry partners, and law enforcement entities to identify new business opportunities and expand market reach. Led the development of competitive proposals, conducted market research, and drove strategic positioning to align company capabilities with evolving government and defense sector needs.

U.S. Department of State

Special Agent/Regional Security Officer/Diplomat, Diplomatic Security Service (Retired)

July 2009 - April 2024 (14 years 10 months)

With extensive experience in global security and crisis response, I provided high-level protection for U.S. personnel and national security interests. My role involved managing security operations at embassies, conducting threat assessments, and leading teams in high-threat environments. Specialized in dignitary protection and complex criminal investigations, ensuring safety and security in demanding situations.

USAF

Non-Commissioned Officer, Explosive Ordnance Disposal(EOD), Active and Reserve

June 1992 - September 2012 (20 years 4 months)

Explosive Ordnance Disposal (EOD) Team Leader and tactical instructor, specializing in counter-IED operations in combat environments. Led high-risk EOD missions, delivering threat mitigation, IED defeat strategies, and tactical support to U.S. and allied forces. Recognized as a subject matter expert in EOD operations, receiving multiple commendations for leadership, battlefield ordnance disposal, and contributions to U.S. national defense and security missions.

Washington State Patrol

State Trooper

September 1996 - February 2000 (3 years 6 months)

A Washington State Trooper in the state’s premier law enforcement agency, responsible for public safety, traffic enforcement, criminal investigations, and emergency response. Enforced state and federal laws, conducting traffic stops, DUI investigations, and felony vehicle interdictions to ensure compliance and public safety. Responded to critical incidents, vehicle accidents, and high-risk law enforcement operations, providing on-scene assessments and tactical support. Assisted in bomb squad and EOD training operations, fostering interagency collaboration in explosive threat mitigation and public safety initiatives.
