Partnerships + Brand | Booz Allen Ventures
Washington, District of Columbia, United States

Summary

Let’s talk AI, autonomy, space exploration, and quantum computing. As the senior partnerships and brand lead for Booz Allen Ventures, I focus on identifying futurist partners, establishing shared vision and accelerating mission outcomes.

I am proud to support our nation’s service members in this work.

“Poetry and science are instruments for knowing the world more intimately and loving it more deeply. Their shared benediction is a wakefulness to reality aglow with wonder.” - Maria Popova, The Universe in Verse
