Contact

www.linkedin.com/in/andrew-hunter-45b562a1 (LinkedIn)

Top Skills

Leadership Development
Program Management
Strategic Planning

Publications

The Promise and Perils of Protectionism in the Defense Sector

Andrew Hunter

Strategic Leader, Board Member, Analyst, and Innovation Enabler.
Former Senate-confirmed Air Force Acquisition Executive.
Fairfax, Virginia, United States

Summary

The Honorable Andrew P. Hunter served as the Senate confirmed Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics, from February 2022 until January 2025. As the U.S. Air Force's Service Acquisition Executive, Mr. Hunter was responsible for Air Force research, development and acquisition activities in excess of $60 billion annually.

From 2014 to 2022, Mr. Hunter was a Senior Fellow in the International Security Program and Director of the Defense-Industrial Initiatives Group at the Center for Strategic and International Studies. He focused on issues affecting the industrial base, including emerging technologies, the defense acquisition system, defense trade and industrial policy.

Mr. Hunter previously served as a member of the Senior Executive Service in the Department of Defense as Director of the Joint Rapid Acquisition Cell. His duties included fielding solutions to urgent operational needs and leading the work of the Warfighter-Senior Integration Group to ensure timely action on critical issues of warfighter support. Mr. Hunter served as the Chief of Staff to the Honorable Ashton B. Carter and the Honorable Frank Kendall, while each was serving as Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics. Additional duties while at the Defense Department included support to the Deputy's Management Action Group and examining ways to reshape acquisition statutes.

Mr. Hunter also previously served as a Professional Staff Member of the House Armed Services Committee, leading the committee's policy staff and managing a portfolio focused on acquisition policy, the defense industrial base, technology transfers and export controls. He served in a variety of staff positions in the House of Representatives, including Appropriations Associate for Congressman Norman D. Dicks; Military Legislative Assistant and Legislative Director for Congressman John M. Spratt Jr.; and staff member for the Select Committee on U.S. National Security and Military and Commercial Concerns with the People's Republic of China.

Mr. Hunter holds a Master of Arts degree in Applied Economics from The Johns Hopkins University and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Studies from Harvard University.

Experience

Pax Per Consortia Strategies LLC
Founder & Principal
January 2025 - Present (1 year 7 months)
Fairfax County, Virginia, United States

As Principal Partner at Pax Per Consortia Strategies, I bring a deep understanding of government customers and their acquisition organizations, fundamental mastery of the defense acquisition process, and deep insights into the trajectory and growth potential of government markets. We help our clients achieve their full potential by developing and executing innovative strategies in a highly competitive marketplace and position our clients for exceptional growth.

United States Department of the Air Force
Assistant Secretary of the Air Force Acquisition, Technology, and Logistics
February 2022 - January 2025 (3 years)
Washington, District of Columbia, United States

Managed a portfolio of technology, R&D, development, production, and sustainment programs in excess of $60 billion annually. Led a comprehensive restructuring of Air Force acquisition to address changing strategic, technology, and market environments.

Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS)
Director, Defense-Industrial Initiatives Group and Senior Fellow, International Security Program
November 2014 - February 2022 (7 years 4 months)

As Director of the Defense-Industrial Initiatives Group at CSIS, I focus on the management of national security programs, the defense industry, and government contracting and acquisition, with an emphasis on the critical trends shaping industry and the budget and resource environment.

Department of Defense
Director, Joint Rapid Acquisition Cell (OUSD AT&L)
February 2011 - November 2014 (3 years 10 months)

My responsibilities included fielding solutions to urgent operational needs and improving the efficiency of acquisition processes.

House Armed Services Committee
Professional Staff Member
2005 - 2011 (6 years)

I was a Professional Staff Member and Policy Staff Lead for the Committee overseeing the full range of Policy issues facing the committee with a direct focus on acquisition and industrial policy.

Representative Norman D. Dicks
National Security Appropriations Associate
1999 - 2005 (6 years)

Representative John M. Spratt, Jr.
Military Legislative Assistant and Legislative Director
1994 - 1999 (5 years)

Education

Harvard University
Bachelor of Arts - BA, Social Sciences · (September 1990 - June 1994)

The Johns Hopkins University
Master's Degree, Applied Economics · (1999 - 2001)