간단프로필

As a Senior Strategist at the Republic of Korea (ROK) Army Headquarters (Military Innovation Division, Office of Policy), I am dedicated to architecting the future of land warfare through the Revolution in Military Affairs (RMA).My core expertise lies in bridging high-level defense policy with disruptive technologies. Currently, I lead strategic initiatives to establish and expand the Unmanned Systems Forces and build a robust Digital Backbone for AI-driven Command and Control (C2) architectures.Key Areas of Focus:Military Innovation: Shaping the ROK Army's long-term transformation into an AI-centric, high-tech force.Autonomous Systems: Strategic scaling of Unmanned Systems and Manned-Unmanned Teaming (MUM-T) concepts.Multi-Domain Operations (MDO): Integrating Cyber and Electromagnetic Spectrum (EMS) warfare into modern combat doctrine.Strategic Partnerships: Strengthening ROK-U.S. technological interoperability and defense cooperation.I am passionate about operationalizing innovation and fostering international defense collaboration to ensure a future-ready defense posture in an increasingly contested global security environment.
