Summary

I am the founder of Captain Ventures.Previously I was a partner @ Pelion, leading seed and series A rounds in exceptional startups.Prior to Pelion I led the product and risk organizations at Divvy, which was acquired by BILL for $2.5b. I also worked at Wealthfront ($1.4B valuation) and Clearwater ($5b+ IPO) in various leadership roles. I believe true leaders are the most scarce human resource in the world, storytelling is the most underrated skill in the world, and explaining complex topics in simple ways is not only the sign of a great communicator but also the strongest sign of intelligence.
