Summary

With 16 years of leadership experience in Digital Transformation, Cloud Computing, Cybersecurity and Infrastructure sales, I specialize in complex and consultative technology selling to large enterprises in India and the Gulf countries. I have managed large deals exceeding US$10 Million across multiple projects in India and the UAE, working extensively with the 'C' Level Executives in large enterprises and the Channel System Integrators. I love learning new technical concepts and their impact on business processes and decisions with value creation at every step. It is exciting to work for an organization with strategic capabilities of executing large-scale projects across multiple industries and to support them in acquiring recurring profitable business.
